Turin, December 18, N. S.

THE Enemy have cut off all our Communication with the State of Milan. The Spaniards are in Poſſeſſion of all the Places upon the Teſin, and have ſent ſome Troops to Come. The Auſtrians are poſted between Novarre and Verceil. We had Advice here Yeſterday, that the Genoeſe have loſt all their Places in the Iſland of Corſica except Bonifacio. Our Regiment de Marine, ſeconded by the Peaſants of Mondovis, have made Incurſions as far as the State of Genoa on the Side of Savone and Final, and have brought off a great Number of Cattle. That Republick is preparing to ſend Troops to guard the Country about thoſe two Places. The Magiſtrates of Milan had not had any Audience of the Infant upon the 11th.

Vienna, Dec. 25, N. S. The freſheſt Advices from Italy ſay, that Don Philip was within two Hours of Milan, with poſitive Orders from Madrid to make the Conqueſt of the Milaneſe during the Winter.

Berlin, Dec. 28, N. S. His Pruſſian Majeſty dined Yeſterday at Wuſterhauſen, four German Miles diſtant from this Place, whither the old Duke of Holſtein and Count Haack went the Day before; and his Majeſty arrived here at Three o'Clock this Afternoon.

Berlin, Jan. 1. The Publick here are overjoy'd with the News of the Peace, and the ſame Illuminations as were made at his Pruſſian Majeſty's Arrival, will be repeated on the 12th Inſtant, when the Peace is to be proclaim'd. On the ſame Day an Opera is to be repreſented; and there will be a Ridotto; and a Temple of Peace is to be built over-againſt the Opera Houſe. His Pruſſian Majeſty ſet out on the 30th paſt for Potzdam, from whence he is to return on the 7th Inſtant; and their Highneſſes the Duke and Dutcheſs of Wolfenbuttel are expected here on the ſame Day. All the Pruſſian Regiments are in Motion, and are to take up the ſame Quarters as in Time of Peace.

Antwerp, Jan. 3, N. S. The Enemy having marched ſome Battalions, Companies of Grenadiers, and Squadrons of Horſe, as well as Artillery, gave us ſome Alarm here and at Bruſſels: The Garriſons began to move out of their Quarters; two Heſſian Battalions marched from hence to Contick, and the other four were going to the Places aſſigned them, but were prevented by receiving Informations, that the Enemy was returned to Ghent, and remained quiet in their Quarters.

Hague, Jan. 7. The States General having received an Application from thoſe of Zealand, for an immediate Reinforcement of Troops, have order'd two Regiments of Foot and two Squadrons of Horſe to paſs over thither. The Intentions of the French in Flanders, both as to their Land and Sea Operations, continue ſtill doubtful; but by Advices from Dunkirk, the Scene of Action ſeems now to be removed to Boulogne and Calais.

Inverary, December 22. Major General Campbell arrived here laſt Night, and propoſes on Monday next to begin to march Six Hundred Men from hence, in three Diviſions, to join General Blakeney at Stirling. Four hundred and Fifty Men have been raiſed in Campbeltoun, and are ready to march on one Day's Notice, for his Majeſty's Service.

Drumfries, Dec. 24. On Saturday laſt the 21ſt, and the Day following, the main Body of the Rebel Army came into this Place with the Pretender's Son: On Monday Morning he marched from hence with them, and propoſed to lodge that Night at Drumlanrig. The Contribution impoſed upon this Town was 2000 l. in in Money; 1000 Pair of Shoes; beſides free Quarters; about nine Casks of Gun Powder; all our Arms publick and private; Horſe Furniture, Boots, &c. and every Horſe that could be found in Town or Country. Several Houſes have been robb'd and plundered by the Rebels, and they have been guilty of the greateſt Outrages. They told us, that we had Reaſon to think ourſelves gently uſed, that the Town was not laid in Aſhes. We have paid them near 1100 l. of the Money ordered to be rais'd, and Provoſt Crosbie and Mr. Walter Riddell are carried off as Hoſtages, till the Remainder is remitted. They have levied the Exciſe, and intimated to us, that if we paid either Exciſe or Land Tax for the Future to any other than them, that we might be ſure of paying it over again double. They ſhot a Tenant of the Duke of Queensbury's for running out of their Way, and not returning quickly enough at their Call. They order'd us to ſend their Baggage off after them, and at the ſame Time aſſured us, that if they heard that a Finger was moved againſt any one of their Straglers, our Hoſtages ſhould inſtantly be put to Death. The Damage done in this Town cannot be repaired for 4000 l. but that done in the Country is much greater.

Edinburgh, Dec. 26. The Van of the Rebel Army enter'd Glaſgow Yeſternight, and the Remainder with the Pretender's Son was to be there this Evening. They have made great Demands on that City as a Puniſhment for having armed and raiſed a Regiment againſt their Leader. Lord Loudoun has got together about 1500 Men, and Part, if not all, are marched towards Aberdeen, where there are about the ſame Number of Rebels, under the Command of Lord Lewis Gordon. General Campbell arrived ſome Days ago at Campbelltoun, from whence he went to Inverary. The Number of Rebels at Perth, Aberdeen, and the Country about, are ſuppoſed to be towards 4000. Upon the Return of the Rebels from England, the Militia were obliged to give up the Guarding the Paſſes on the Forth; and Yeſterday Glengyle, with the Help of Floats, (the Boats being all deſtroyed) paſſed the Forth at the Frew, (where the Rebels formerly paſſed) and placed a Guard on this Side of that Ford.

Whitehall, December 31.

Some Letters from the North mention, that the Rebels remained in the Town of Carliſle upon the 25th, and fired almoſt inceſſantly; that his Royal Highneſs had upon that Day received Six Pieces of the Cannon expected from Whitehaven; and that every thing was preparing for Beginning the Attack upon the Place.

Whitehall, December 31, at Noon.

By Letters of the 28th Inſtant, juſt received from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland's Army, there is Advice, that they had then began to batter the Four-Gun-Battery of Carliſle with Six Eighteen Pounders, and hoped to make a Breach fit to give the Aſſault by the next Night.
